YEARS

Forever Cunard.

Mediterranean & Northern Europe
Transatlantic Crossings ♦ The World.

QUEEN ELIZABETH

QUEEN MARY 2

QUEEN VICTORIA

Welcome.

When Samuel Cunard set sail across the Atlantic aboard Britannia in July 1840, he changed the face of ocean-going travel forever. This year, as we celebrate 175 years at sea, you can be assured that a Cunard cruise is still just as much about the experience you have on board as the destinations you visit.

Peruse the following pages and you'll find cruises that explore the world's most iconic cities, and many intriguing destinations that are less well known. All of them sure to make for fascinating holidays.

I am immensely proud of Cunard's history, our beautiful fleet and the talented people who continue to champion our tradition of service and excellence.

We hope to have the pleasure of your company soon.

Commodore Christopher Rynd

Feel welcome from the very first “good afternoon”.

There’s something rather distinctive about the service on board a Cunard ship. You’ll recognise it from the very first greeting when you embark.

It’s a combination of courtesy and confidence that says you’re in the hands of a very professional crew. Made up of individuals who take great pride in making your stay on board unforgettable.

You’ll hear it in the way your stateroom steward greets you by name and remembers details about your trip. You’ll see it in your waiter’s impeccable attention to detail. You’ll feel it in the way you relax the second you step on board.

We believe great service is warm and sincere. It isn’t stuffy. It isn’t hurried. It’s always friendly, but never over-familiar. Great service takes its lead from you.

At Cunard we call it White Star Service because it’s a shining example of how things should be done.

Queen Mary 2.

Where does one start with our majestic flagship?

It’s not for nothing that she’s the most famous ocean liner in the world. Her sheer scale and elegance see to that. Encompassed within her graceful lines are fifteen restaurants and bars, five swimming pools, a full-sized theatre, a casino, a Canyon Ranch SpaClub®, a 3D cinema, the world’s first floating planetarium and the largest dance floor at sea. She even has spacious kennels, to accommodate our four-legged guests in style on Transatlantic Crossings.

For lovers of fresh sea air, there are around three-and-a-half acres of deck space and - as on all three Cunard Queens - a traditional promenade deck that circumnavigates the ship.

As well as an incredible feat of engineering, she’s a fine art gallery. More than five thousand commissioned works hang in her public spaces and staterooms. Perhaps most prominent is sculptor John McKenna’s gleaming bronze relief portrait of the ship in the Grand Lobby, inspired by the Art Deco mural in the main dining room of the original Queen Mary.

Where you can visit aboard Queen Mary 2.

Queen Mary 2 continues the proud Cunard tradition of regular Transatlantic Crossings to or from New York - that most iconic of journeys. There’s also the opportunity to explore more of America and Canada by heading north along the coast from New York. In addition, a number of Short Breaks out of Southampton offer the perfect chance to experience the ship and some European delights. Early in 2016, she embarks on a full 120-night westbound circumnavigation of the world, via South America. Book a holiday for a particular section of it, or join us for the entire unforgettable expedition.

Queen Elizabeth

Queen Elizabeth.

Christened by her namesake HM the Queen in 2010, and the newest of our fleet, Queen Elizabeth's design pays tribute to the art deco tradition. The heyday of Hollywood glamour is instantly evoked by her elegant wood panelling, gleaming chandeliers, marble flooring and beautiful decorative touches.

Nowhere more so than in the triple-height Grand Lobby, its sweeping staircase dominated by a stunning marquetry-panelled portrait of the original RMS Queen Elizabeth, in a design created by The Queen's nephew, Viscount Linley.

For relaxation the ship's architects created the Garden Lounge - a large conservatory, based on the famous hothouses of Kew Gardens - and a unique Games Deck, where you can enjoy the gentle pastimes of croquet, bowls and paddle tennis.

Where you can visit aboard Queen Elizabeth.

Queen Elizabeth offers a range of cruises out of Southampton, from which you can explore the historic ports of Northern Europe, the many jewels of the Mediterranean. Early in 2016 she'll depart for her 121-night World Voyage, charting a course between Africa, Australia, the Far East, India, the Middle East and the Mediterranean. Join the ship for particular sections - or indulge yourself, and experience the entire odyssey.

Queen Victoria.

Queen Victoria is similar in size and layout to her sister ship, Queen Elizabeth, but has her own distinct personality and feel. Her classical décor has an Edwardian elegance - warm-toned and plush - executed with Cunard's hallmark flair.

She's also the holder of several firsts. The first Cunard ship to have a female Captain - Inger Klein Olsen - and the first in the world to offer private boxes at sea in the Royal Court Theatre. Fans of Queen Victoria - and they are legion - often remark on her unusual cosiness. Because, while she's every inch a grand ship in terms of size and decor, she has a particularly warm and intimate feeling throughout.

Where you can visit aboard Queen Victoria.

Queen Victoria will spend much of 2015 and 2016 in the Mediterranean, offering cruises that set sail from Barcelona, Venice, Rome, Athens and Istanbul. Joining the ship at any of these iconic cities means you can explore all the history and culture the region has to offer from the very first day of your cruise. At the beginning of 2016, Queen Victoria then embarks on her World Voyage, completing a full eastbound circumnavigation in 120 nights, on an itinerary that includes a passage through the Panama Canal. Join us for the whole epic adventure - or simply for a part of it.

Queen Victoria

Dine where your mood takes you.

If anything sums up the freedom of your cruise, it is the array of places to eat, from healthy to hearty, from light bites to haute cuisine. The only challenge is deciding what to order, when so much catches the eye. You'll find classics like tender lobster or melt-in-the-mouth chateaubriand. Often what's on offer reflects where you are in the world - as our chefs make use of fresh, local ingredients.

Whether your accommodation means you're dining in the Britannia Restaurant or the Princess Grill or Queens Grill, everything is beautifully presented and offered with wines that complement your choice perfectly. You'll also find many tempting vegetarian dishes and we'll happily cater for many special dietary requirements. On all three ships, buffet-style dining is available throughout the day and until late evening. For those more informal lunches, the ever-popular Golden Lion Pub welcomes you with traditional gastro-pub fare.

Dining 'out' is always an option.

For a modest supplement, you can have a change of culinary scenery from your main restaurant, and 'dine out'. On Queen Mary 2, the renowned Todd English restaurant will take your taste buds on a tour of the Mediterranean. By evening, a corner of the Kings Court buffet becomes one of three mini-restaurants. La Piazza offering tempting Italian fare, Coriander serving fine Indian cuisine and Lotus conjuring flavours from across Asia. On Queen Elizabeth and Queen Victoria, The Verandah presents French specialities during the day and evening. At dinner it also offers an acclaimed multiple-course tasting menu - an unforgettable culinary experience that's truly worth skipping lunch for.

On Queen Elizabeth, the Lido buffet hosts one of three featured restaurants each evening - Asada's South American Grill offers steaks and seafood, Aztec conjures mouth-watering Mexican or there's Jasmine for fragrant Asian cuisine. Queen Victoria's Lido is where you'll find Bamboo, serving Asian fusion, Coriander offering modern Indian cuisine and Prime - the place to choose for succulent steaks and seafood.

The Britannia experience.

Sparkling wine welcomes you into your home-away-from-home (ranging in size from 152 - 243 square feet). All of our Britannia staterooms (whether they're Inside, Oceanview or Balcony) boast king-sized beds - or twins, if you'd prefer - topped with exclusively-designed Sealy mattresses.

Your steward is always available for help and advice - while round-the-clock complimentary room service keeps you refreshed and replete. As well as a flatscreen TV, generous storage and a mini-bar, you'll have use of complimentary Penhaligons toiletries, bathrobes and slippers - and every evening there's a turndown service with a chocolate on your pillow.

The Britannia Restaurant epitomises everything the Golden Age of travel was about - and still is, aboard a Cunard Queen. Dining here always feels like an event. The buzz of your fellow passengers, all with the day's stories to share, the drama of the double-height room, with its sweeping staircase. Whether you're seated at 6pm or 8.30pm, the pace is unhurried, the service impeccable and the food superb. The restaurant is also open for breakfast and lunch.

Britannia Club.

Our Britannia Club staterooms on Queen Mary 2 and Queen Elizabeth come with a roomy private balcony and a pillow menu, for those with very particular requirements to achieve the perfect night's sleep. You're welcome to dine whenever you choose between 6.30pm and 9pm, in the dedicated Britannia Club restaurant - the perfect setting for those who prefer a more intimate dining experience.

Cunard Grills.

The Grill Suites are the epitome of the Cunard experience. Grills guests enjoy attentive service and the space to relax in their suites, exclusive lounges and terraces. Meanwhile, the finest food and wines make every meal something to savour in the Grills restaurants, where only the very best will do.

The Princess Grill experience.

Booking a Princess Grill Suite takes your travels to a whole new level of indulgence.

After embarking at your priority time slot, you're welcomed with sparkling wine and strawberries into your spacious balconied suite that occupies a prime location on the ship. Separate sleeping, living and dressing areas are cleverly arranged over 335 - 513 square feet. Fresh fruit is replenished daily, and you'll find your marble-topped bath and shower room plentifully stocked with Penhaligons toiletries and soft terry robes and slippers. Personalised stationery, board games and a DVD player are available on request from your steward and the pillow concierge menu - offering a choice of pillows - makes sure your slumbers are sublime.

Away from your suite, you have exclusive access to private deck areas, the elegant Grills Lounge and beautiful Princess Grill restaurant. Here you may dine - for breakfast, lunch and dinner - from a spectacular menu, or à la carte. In finer climates, on Queen Victoria or Queen Elizabeth, you might enjoy eating alfresco in The Grills Courtyard.

A concierge service attends to any special requirements you have, on board or ashore. This compliments the attentions of your steward, who makes all the arrangements should you wish to eat in-suite from the Princess Grill menu.

To sum up a cruise in a Princess Grill Suite, one of our regular passengers is best placed to comment: "An oasis of wonderful experiences."

The Queens Grill experience.

As a Queens Grill passenger, you experience the very apex of luxury in ocean-going travel.

After embarking at your priority time slot, you'll find champagne, strawberries and petit fours awaiting your arrival in your primely-located and beautifully designed suite. This comprises a bedroom, large sitting area, a marble bathroom with whirlpool bath and shower, a walk-in wardrobe and spacious private balcony, all laid out over 506 - 2,249 square feet. Grand, Master, Duplex and Penthouse Queens Grill Suites also have separate dining areas. Board games, a games console and DVD player are provided as standard.

Your Queens Grill butler looks after your every need. From being on hand to unpack for you on arrival, to serving your daily pre-dinner canapés, restocking your complimentary bar, arranging fresh flowers, or organising any drinks or dinner parties you might wish to host during your cruise.

For breakfast, lunch and dinner, you'll have a table reserved in the world famous Queens Grill restaurant. The sublime menu is designed to whet every appetite. But, should you not see what you want, our chefs will do their very utmost to create whatever takes your fancy.

In finer climates, on Queen Victoria or Queen Elizabeth, you might enjoy eating alfresco in The Grills Courtyard. You'll also have exclusive access to private deck areas and the elegant Grills Lounge.

We leave it to one of our passengers to put the Queen's Grill Suite experience into their own words: "Quite simply, it's one of life's greatest pleasures."

Transatlantic Crossings.

Cunard ships have been crossing the Atlantic to and from New York since 1840, when we established the first ever regular service. Today, only Queen Mary 2 regularly makes this journey and not only does it remain as glamorous and exciting as ever but it also remains one of travel's most iconic experiences.

That's partly because a Transatlantic Crossing offers so much possibility. It's a welcome chance to leave the everyday world behind, to escape into a new world of pleasure and excitement and yet feel utterly relaxed. Most of all it's an invitation to make a unique and dramatic arrival into – or departure from – the world's most exciting city.

Our magnificent flagship is uniquely suited to ensuring you have a holiday of a lifetime, with so much space and so many experiences to choose from, including the planetarium, 3D film screenings, RADA drama workshops, the largest library at sea, Juilliard Jazz performances and the incredible Canyon Ranch SpaClub®.

As you would expect, the cuisine is exquisite and at night you can anticipate a whirl of West End style shows, live music and dancing to the orchestra in the Queens Room.

Days you'll love as you cross the Atlantic.

Between New York and Southampton, whichever way you travel, you have six or seven whole days in which to lose yourself to the countless charms of our flagship.

The beauty of it all is that every moment is yours to do exactly what you want. You can be sociable all day long, or find your own quiet corner. You can stay active from dawn until dusk, or just enjoy the glorious leisure. It's your holiday, it's up to you. But here are a few ideas of how you might spend those daytime hours.

On Queen Mary 2, experience distant galaxies in the only planetarium at sea. How about some holiday reading? You'll definitely find a page-turner in the largest library at sea. Or indulge in blissful wraps, massages and body scrubs at Canyon Ranch SpaClub®. You'll work up an appetite at a Yoga, Tai Chi or Pilates class. When you're in the mood for a little friendly competition there are tournaments throughout the day, from quizzes to quoits. See if there's a masterpiece inside you at a watercolour class. Learn more about your iPad or Skype in our iStudy Seminar, or brush up on your French or Spanish skills. Hear history brought to life, meet a musical idol or discover the secrets of entrepreneurs. You can even improve your stage presence during acting workshops led by RADA graduates.

Evenings you'll always remember.

On your first evening aboard, as you edge away from Southampton or New York, you may find yourself on deck as the adventure begins. Ahead lies uninterrupted ocean and either seven or eight nights that will be filled with music, dancing, laughter and priceless moments that will stay with you for years to come.

A sense of occasion every evening.

There's nothing quite like watching the sun set from the scenic Commodore Club, clinking flutes in the Veuve Clicquot Champagne Bar or the social hubbub of the Captain's Cocktail reception. What's on the menu tonight? Chateaubriand or sea bass at your reserved restaurant table, reservations at Todd English restaurant to sample fine dining with a Mediterranean flavour, or relishing every mouthful of the 12-course tasting menu at Lotus, whose delicacies include snow crab soup and duck spring rolls.

Feeling richly entertained.

Tonight, you may have decided to join a star party on deck where a Fellow from the Royal Astronomical Society will guide you through the constellations. You may anticipate the curtain going up at the Royal Court Theatre for another glittering performance. If you love energetic musical numbers, you're in the right place too. Viva Italia! – celebrating the country's music, style and culture – and the sensational Apassionata are among the offerings. Equally, stand-up comedy, a magician or a late-night film might be your ideal evening viewing. The Golden Lion Pub is where you can enjoy an evening of live piano and singing, or where you can try some karaoke. Of course, the Empire Casino always invites you to test your luck against the roulette wheels and blackjack tables.

Music and dancing all the way.

Live music will be the backdrop to your party on deck where a Fellow from the Royal Astronomical Society will guide you through the constellations. There are always entertainers around the ship. A jazz trio ups the tempo in the Chart Room this evening, or you can take your seat for a classical recital in Illuminations. Occasionally we host our very own Last Night Of The Proms with the National Symphony Orchestra, every bit as colourful and lively as the real thing. In the Queens Room, the full orchestra fills the floor, whether on Big Band nights or at the dazzling Ascot ball, when you can put today's tango lessons to good use. Of course you can always 'stay out' late at the G32 nightclub, open into the small hours. Or listen to classic and contemporary jazz concerts from the renowned Juilliard School.

Transatlantic Crossings.

Classic Crossings.

For a classic seven or eight-night crossing, you'll either fly out to New York to join Queen Mary 2 or Queen Victoria for an eastbound crossing, or travel westbound from Southampton to New York before flying home. You can choose from 35 departures between August 2015 and January 2017.

On selected cruises there will also be calls at Halifax in Canada, (cruises M516, M516A, M611C, M612, M616C, M617 and V605, V605A), and Cork (tours from Cobh) in Ireland (cruises V605A and V606). These cruises are highlighted in gold - see page 15.

Roundtrip Crossings.

For the ultimate experience, why not cross the Atlantic in both directions? Sailing there and back gives you 14-18 unforgettable nights on board, with a day in the middle to discover New York.

'As You Like It'.

It's easy to enhance your crossing with a hotel stay in New York. We can arrange accommodation in one of our selected hotels together with flights, transfers and upgrades. Please call 13 24 41 or call your travel agent for more information.

Your Westbound/Eastbound fare includes:

- ◆ All meals[^] and entertainment.

Mediterranean Cruises.

Queen Victoria calls at many stunning Mediterranean ports in 2015 and 2016. With the opportunity to visit ancient ruins, bustling modern cities and serenely beautiful beaches, this great sea is yours to explore.

Queen Victoria will embark on seven, 14 and 21 night adventures in 2015, sailing from one of four historic cities - Rome, Athens, Venice and Istanbul - each providing superb opportunities to extend your holiday pre or post cruise for a few nights. Her programme offers a number of options to create the perfect European holiday; giving you the opportunity to see as much of the Mediterranean as you desire. She will visit many of the most beautiful and glamorous ports in the region - including Monte Carlo, Dubrovnik and Santorini.

In 2016 Queen Victoria will visit an array of especially interesting ports of call. Cannes is synonymous with glamour thanks to the annual film festival, and the town suits its reputation well. To feel every inch the film star, head to the Promenade de la Croisette, the iconic waterfront avenue that's lined with palm trees. The Greek island of Rhodes is always a highlight, perhaps due to its constant sunshine or the amazing views as you sail into port. Or perhaps the Medieval Old Town, one of the best preserved in the world, beguiles with its maze of cobbled streets to explore. Away from the city of Rhodes, the island offers much. The town of Lindos with its ancient acropolis is a particular highlight. The Corsican capital of Ajaccio is easily explored on foot and is full of history, thanks to its famous son - Napoleon Bonaparte. With a strong French identity, you'll find pâtisseries, cafés and boutiques that wouldn't seem out of place in Paris.

The Mediterranean offers countless places of interest and beauty, and our 21-night Mediterranean cruises offer enough time to fully explore. Find out more by visiting cunard.com, calling 13 24 41 or contacting your travel agent. Whichever sights are on your Mediterranean 'to do' list, our shore excursions are the most convenient way to see them. You can start planning now at cunard.com, and even book shore excursions through our Voyage Personaliser.

Port highlights.

Rome, the Eternal City, is perhaps the most historic city in the world. Shaped by the Romans, a walk through the city is like exploring a living museum. If time allows a visit, the Vatican will leave any visitor awestruck by its beauty.

Rhodes is a central part of Greek history, home as it was to the Colossus of Rhodes – one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. Today, the island is dotted with historical sites, bustling towns and stunning beaches.

Mykonos was a playground for the rich and famous in the 1960's. Today, the island appeals to everyone. You'll find quiet beaches, waterfront bars, bustling shops and everything in between.

Northern Europe cruises.

The rugged beauty of Northern Europe offers an array of cultural riches and spectacular landscapes to discover. And the further north you venture, the more rugged and dramatic the scenery becomes.

Around the Baltic Sea, several capitals await; Stockholm, Copenhagen and Tallinn to name three. Of Stockholm's many impressive gems, the Vasa Museum is a must see destination and contains a beautifully restored warship that sank in 1628.

St Petersburg and Tallinn are both stunning cities in their own right. Russia's cultural capital, St Petersburg is a vision of tsarist palaces and cathedral domes. The world-famous Hermitage Museum will enthral, and our shore excursions can afford exclusive access after hours. Equally, a trip to the Russian Ballet is sure to leave you enraptured.

Meanwhile, Tallinn with its fairy tale Old Town is the perfect place to lose yourself for the day - perhaps imagining the city as it was hundreds of years ago.

Further north, Norway's glassy fjords, electric blue glaciers and pounding waterfalls leave a lasting impression. Traditional clapboard buildings in Bergen and Stavanger complete the perfect fjords image, whilst Norway's Viking heritage adds extra interest.

Perched on the most northerly tip of Denmark sits Skagen, renowned for its remarkable light that attracted artists and tourists alike in the late 19th Century. Today, visitors still flock to the town to visit the myriad museums and galleries and to take advantage of the light for their own artistic endeavours. Reykjavik in Iceland offers many delights, despite it being one of the smallest capital cities in the world. We visit during the summer when daylight is in abundance and the streets come to life with locals. Simply wandering the city and revelling in the spirit of Reykjavik is one of life's great pleasures.

Our shore excursions will help illuminate any call along your route. Details of these convenient tours can be found at cunard.com, and you can book in advance using our Voyage Personaliser.

Port highlights.

Copenhagen may be known for its Little Mermaid statue, but there is more to discover - pristine beaches, galleries and 15 Michelin starred restaurants to name a few. Being remarkably compact, the city is easy to explore on foot or, as most residents do, on a bike.

Dublin has a lively reputation, thanks to the welcoming Temple Bar area and Guinness, still brewed in the city. Ireland's famous craic is wonderfully abundant here. Other highlights include Trinity College - home to Ireland's oldest harp and the model for the country's emblem.

Akureyri in northern Iceland is famed for its fishing fleet and surprisingly mild climate. It's this mild weather that gives rise to the slightly unusual sight of open air botanical gardens that flourish in the spring and summer.

World Voyages 2016.

Queen Mary 2, Queen Victoria and Queen Elizabeth all set off on their World Voyages on 10 January 2016. All three journeys begin and end in Southampton, with our three Queens leaving and returning, some months later, together. Each ship follows a course which takes in amazing destinations around the globe, and this map shows just how far and wide you can travel.

Tokyo, Japan

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

- ◆ QUEEN MARY 2 10 January to 10 May 2016

How to pay for your Cunard Voyage

Debit or Credit Card PREFERRED
 The quickest and most convenient way to pay for your voyage is by debit card (MasterCard or Visa) or Credit Card (MasterCard, Visa or American Express). Simply call our Customer Sales and Service team to make a debit or credit card payment. Best of all there are no service fees for debit card payments.

For each credit card payment, a 1.5% service fee applies which is subject to change and will be advised before payment. Please note, we do not accept pre-paid cards.

When paying your deposit by credit or debit card, you can also set up an auto-charge to have your final payment automatically charged to your credit or debit card on the due date, without needing to contact us again.

When making a booking for a cruise that departs within 7 days, full payment will be required by credit or debit card.

Direct Deposit into our Bank Account

You can also make a payment by making a deposit directly into our ANZ bank account, including by internet transfer. You will need to use your 6 digit alpha-numeric Cunard booking reference as your payment reference. If you are unable to use Cunard booking reference, please use the phone number you provided us when you made your booking.
