PORTS & CITIES

Juneau:

The City and Borough of Juneau is the capital city of Alaska. It is a unified municipality located on the Gastineau Channel in the Alaskan panhandle, and it is the second largest city in the United States by area. Juneau has been the capital of Alaska since 1906, when the government of what was then the District of Alaska was moved from Sitka as dictated by the U.S. Congress in 1900. The municipality unified on July 1, 1970, when the city of Juneau merged with the city of Douglas and the surrounding Greater Juneau Borough to form the current municipality, which is larger by area than both Rhode Island and Delaware.

Skagway:

Skagway is a first-class borough in Alaska on the Alaska Panhandle. As of the 2010 census, the population was 920. Estimates put the 2014 population at 1,012 people. The population doubles in the summer tourist season in order to deal with more than 900,000 visitors. It was formerly a city first incorporated in 1900 that was re-incorporated as a borough on June 25, 2007.

Ketchikan:

Ketchikan is a city in the Ketchikan Gateway Borough, Alaska, United States, the southeastern most city in Alaska. With a population at the 2010 census of 8,050, it is the sixth-most populous city in the state, and tenth-most populous community when census-designated places are included. The surrounding borough, encompassing suburbs both north and south of the city along the Tongass Highway, plus small rural settlements accessible mostly by water, registered a population of 13,477 in that same census. Estimates put the 2014 population at 13,787 people. Incorporated on August 25, 1900, Ketchikan is presently the earliest incorporated city in Alaska, owing to consolidation or unification elsewhere in Alaska resulting in dissolution of those communities' city governments. Ketchikan is located on Revillagigedo Island, so named in 1793 by Captain George Vancouver.

Banff:

Banff is a quaint resort town in the National Park. Mineral hot springs & Mountainous surroundings have made Banff a popular tourist destination. As Canada's first UNESCO protected park, Banff is a template for conservation, and offer visitors the quintessential Canadian Experience.

Glacier Bay:

Glacier Bay is a United States national park and preserve in the Alaska panhandle west of Juneau. President Calvin Coolidge proclaimed the area around Glacier Bay a national monument under the Antiquities Act on February 25, 1925. Subsequent to an expansion of the monument by President Jimmy Carter in 1978, the Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act enlarged the national monument by 523,000 acres on December 2, 1980 and in the process created Glacier Bay National Park and Preserve, with 57,000 additional acres of public land designated as national preserve to the immediate northwest of the park in order to protect a portion of the Alsek River and related fish and wildlife habitats while allowing sport hunting.

Inside Passage:

The Inside Passage is a coastal route for oceangoing vessels along a network of passages which weave through the islands on the Pacific coast of North America. The route extends from southeastern Alaska, in the United States, through western British Columbia, in Canada, to northwestern Washington State, in the United States. Ships using the route can avoid some of the bad weather in the open ocean and may visit some of the many isolated communities along the route. The Inside Passage is heavily travelled by cruise ships, freighters, tugs with tows, fishing craft and ships of the Alaska Marine Highway, BC Ferries, and Washington State Ferries systems.

Icy Strait Point:

Icy Strait Point is a privately owned tourist destination just outside the small village of Hoonah, Alaska. It is located on Chichagof Island and is named after the nearby Icy Strait. Owned by Huna Totem Corporation, it is the only privately owned cruise destination in Alaska, as most stops are owned by the cities in which they are located. Huna Totem Corporation is owned by approximately 1,350 Alaskan Natives with aboriginal ties to Hoonah and the Glacier Bay area. Many of them are of the Tlingit people.

Jasper:

Jasper is a small, friendly and sustainable community set in the natural splendor of the largest national park in the Rocky Mountains. Amid the snow-capped Canadian Rockies, the park has abundant wildlife, glacier-fed lakes, forests and rivers

Lake Louise:

Lake Louise has become symbolic of the quintessentially Canadian mountain scene. This alpine lake, known for its sparkling blue waters, is situated at the base of impressive glacier-clad peaks that have long been at the heart of Canadian mountaineering. At about 2.5 kilometers long and 90 meters deep, the lake offers a surreal paddling experience in the warm summer months and one of the most scenic skating rinks in the world in winter.

Kamloops:

Kamloops is a city in south central British Columbia in Canada, located at the confluence of the two branches of the Thompson River near Kamloops Lake.

A semi-arid ecosystem welcomes travellers to Kamloops - Canada's only desert region, with over 2,000 hours of sunshine each year. Kamloops is a charming overnight stop on Rocky Mountaineer's First Passage to the West and Journey through the Clouds routes.

Vancouver:

Vancouver, a bustling west coast seaport in British Columbia, is among Canada's densest, most ethnically diverse cities. A popular filming location, it's surrounded by mountains and invites outdoor pursuits of all kinds, but also has thriving art, theatre and music scenes. Vancouver Art Gallery is known for its works by regional artists, while the Museum of Anthropology houses preeminent First Nations collections. Vancouver is consistently named as one of the top five worldwide cities for livability and quality of life.

FAQS

1. What is the best time to travel through the Canadian Rockies?

Onboard the Rocky Mountaineer, every season offers unique advantages. For instance, June is 'Springtime in the Rockies' with snow on the mountaintops and flowers beginning to bloom. April, May and October offer savings and July and August give you the warm weather in the mountains.

2. How far do we travel on the Rocky Mountaineer?

About 450 kilometres (280 miles) each day, all in daylight. Look forward to spending two full relaxing days onboard the Rocky Mountaineer.

3. What are the advantages to travelling these routes by rail?

There are many unique features to rail travel. You will enjoy an extremely comfortable seat with ample legroom and have the freedom to stretch your legs and enjoy the fresh air while in GoldLeaf Service vestibules. Combined with attentive service and outstanding storytelling, this type of leisurely paced travel will ensure that you know you are on holiday. One of the greatest advantages, however, is the ability to travel through areas simply not accessible by foot, car or motorcoach. The routes we travel on are described as engineering marvels and as we follow rushing rivers, pass beside towering waterfalls and ride through spectacular river canyons, you will understand why. To truly appreciate the nature and scenery in this part of the world, Rocky Mountaineer offers the very best vantage point.

4. What speed does the train travel?

The advantage of our train is that we are able to slow down at the most scenic areas to offer you picture perfect moments and the best camera photographic opportunities. While there are areas the train reaches up to 90kph (60mph), our average speed is approximately 50 kph (30mph).

5. What happens with my luggage?

Your luggage will be delivered to your overnight accommodation in Kamloops, Whistler or Quesnel. Checked luggage will not be available onboard the train.

6. What will the weather be like and what should I pack?

In Alberta, British Columbia, and Washington State, temperatures vary significantly depending on location, time of day, and season. Summer temperatures range from a low of 10°C (50°F) to a high of 40°C (104°F). Kamloops, in particular, may be very warm in the summer, while in the alpine regions, weather can change dramatically in a short time. Plan to bring a sweater, trousers, and a light topcoat or raincoat, as well as lightweight summer wear. Due to the natural movement of the train, flat-soled shoes are recommended. For your comfort, our coaches are air conditioned and layers of clothing are suggested as the temperature may fluctuate on the train throughout the day.

7. Do your facilities accommodate people with special needs and/or disabilities?

Rocky Mountaineer will make every effort to meet any special needs, including the requirements of our disabled guests. Some of the Rocky Mountaineer coaches are wheelchair accessible. GoldLeaf Dome Coaches have elevators for guests who have problems using the spiral staircase. Please inform us at the time of booking if any assistance is required.

8. What wildlife will I see?

There are wonderful opportunities for viewing wildlife from the train and during your stay in Canada's West, including bear, elk, deer, moose, bald eagles, osprey, salmon, mountain goats and bighorn sheep. However, "wildlife are wild" and as such, sightings are never guaranteed. If you do come into contact with animals please act responsibly, maintain a safe distance and never feed any wild animals.

9. What is the protocol concerning gratuities for On-board Hosts?

In North America, gratuities are often given in recognition of service excellence. Gratuities are not included in prices for Rocky Mountaineer Hosts, driver guides, tour escorts or hotel porters.

The following is provided to assist you, but we leave the decision to provide a gratuity for Rocky Mountaineer Hosts entirely at your discretion:

GoldLeaf Service: Our past guests have left gratuities based on their overall service experience ranging from $70 to $90 per couple ($35 to $45 per guest) for a two day on-board experience, which is shared between the Hosts and Culinary Team in your coach.

SilverLeaf Service: Our past guests have left gratuities based on their overall service experience ranging from $60 to $80 per couple ($30 to $40 per guest) for a two day on-board experience, which is shared between the Hosts in your coach. Gratuities may be paid by cash or credit card.
