Why Choose a River Cruise?

Whether you're looking for the perfect city break, a relaxing vacation or a sightseeing adventure, a river cruise can give you that – and so much more.

A river cruise offers a great opportunity to take a different kind of break with friends and loved ones. Imagine waking up to the sound of calm waves lapping the side of the boat, walking out onto the veranda and enjoying the magnificent views, ones that you won't get on a standard holiday. With a river-cruising holiday you don't have to imagine: you can easily make it into a reality.

With so many potential locations to visit, and a wealth of rivers to travel on, you'll be spoilt for choice. You also get the chance to fit a variety of city breaks into one trip. Simply board your cruise ship, check in and you're set for an adventure.

The Benefits of a River Cruise

A river cruise can provide a host of benefits. So it's no surprise that the popularity of river cruises is continually increasing. The number of UK passengers taking to the waterways in Europe and beyond increased by six per cent in 2014, according to research from CLIA UK &

Ireland.<sup>1</sup> The total number of British holidaymakers taking a river cruise in 2014 was 139,400.<sup>2</sup>

Let's take a look at a few of the benefits you gain from a river-cruising holiday.

Travel in Style: A river cruise gives you a unique insight into a country and its customs. You'll be travelling in style and taking in the sites as you relax aboard a luxury cruise ship. Without the hassle of packing and unpacking, and driving from one location to another, you can just focus on the most important thing, relaxing.

The River Cruising Experience: You will be exploring the world in luxury accommodation and there are plenty of all-inclusive river-cruising offers available. You will see a whole host of sights that you wouldn't normally have the opportunity to see, at a pace that suits you.

For the chance to take in unparalleled views, a river cruise is perfect. You can take each day as it comes, as you view a great number of breath-taking sights. Without the stress of a standard holiday, you can relax as our staff take care of everything while you wind down.

Relaxed Atmosphere: The atmosphere on-board the ship is relaxed and informal and because you're sailing along waterways rather than by sea you don't have that pesky seasickness to deal with.

We take a personal approach to our cruises, that's why most of the cruise line ships are relatively small, catering for under 200 passengers. This helps us to provide the best customer service possible, and ensures that you get the intimate cruise you're looking for.

Wealth of Cruise Routes: A river-cruising holiday isn't limited to the UK. You can travel on exciting journeys such as Amsterdam to Budapest via Cologne and Vienna or St Petersburg to Moscow. With so many options available you just need to decide where your first adventure will take you.

Leading Cruise Lines: At River Cruising we work with some of the biggest and most trusted names in the river-cruising industry. Customer satisfaction is at the heart of everything we do; you can rest assured that all our experiences are four- or five-star rated.

Your River Cruise

Part of visiting a new location, whether in the UK or abroad, is exploring the area. That's why the cruise lines we work with provide a choice of guided walks and tours for each destination.

Simply pick as many or as few as you wish, go along and explore your surroundings. Who knows, you might just find your new favourite place. If you'd rather stay on-board, that's fine. After all, a river-cruising holiday is all about relaxing and going at a pace that suits you.

On-board you will be treated to the local cuisine and fine wines so that you can really get to grips with the culture of the country you're visiting.
