SOUTH AUSTRALIA

A state of contrasts

With parched desert landscapes in the north, rolling pastures and vineyards in the south, the stunning Murray River and seemingly endless stretches of stunning coastline, this State is one of contrasting, but unforgettable scenery and experiences, many of which can be found nowhere else in the world.

Australia's food and wine capital, the state continues to offer some of the world's best wine, finest produce and a great variety of restaurants, local cafes and even innovative and exotic food trucks. These experiences extend well beyond the city, one of the great pleasures of exploring the state is discovering yet another fine eatery in one of the many small villages or tucked away on a quiet country road.

Adelaide continues to re-invent itself with a number of recent projects, meaning the city has more to offer than ever. With accommodation and touring options to suit every budget and taste, there's no time like the present to get to know the city and state better.

ADELAIDE

Adelaide, South Australia's capital, is a city of transformation

One of the best places in Australia to experience the country's exquisite food and wine, Adelaide offers world class restaurants and bars, the fantastic Central Market and National Wine Centre. And let's not forget easy access to iconic wine and produce regions. However, the city has much more to offer than just indulging your taste buds.

A visit isn't complete without enjoying the heritage listed buildings and museums on North Terrace or a stroll along the Torrens. The newly renovated Adelaide Oval not only offers a fantastic sports venue, but the Roof Climb offers an entirely new perspective on the city (or a match). Retail therapy is in abundance at Rundle Mall and the Rundle Street area, whereas for those looking for a more sedate visit could wander the Botanic Gardens or enjoy the landscaped gardens and wildlife at Adelaide Zoo.

BAROSSA VALLEY

A world-famous wine region at our doorstep

Famous for its food and wine, people travel from all over the world to experience it first hand. Iconic wineries like Seppeltsfield and Rockfords Wines offer bold vintages, extensive degustations, some of the region's largest cellars and even the chance to taste a glass of Tawny from the year of your birth. Smaller cellar doors are numerous, and offer a bottle for almost every taste and budget, from award winning labels found in the world's greatest cellars to a casual glass to enjoy with friends.

To truly appreciate the region, stay a night or two and enjoy the local towns, or choose solitude in a vineyard retreat, but make sure you dine in one of the many restaurants which offer local produce paired, naturally, with a glass or two of some of the region's best offerings.

OUR TOP TIPS

Drink responsibly! Let someone else drive and enjoy the wineries on a day tour
Hire a bike and try some local produce at Maggie Beers Farm Shop
Enjoy a glass (or two) while gazing over the vineyards where it was produced
Make the most of the region with a romantic getaway for two

CLARE VALLEY

Heritage towns, the Riesling Trail & aromatic white wines

One of Australia's oldest wine regions, the Clare Valley was the forerunner of an industry which has changed Australian agriculture and changed our attitude to food and wine.

Discover heritage towns, walking or biking trails, boutique wineries, artisan producers, museums and galleries, all surrounded by beautiful scenery, rolling hills and the ever-changing colours of the vineyards.

Known best for its Riesling, the region has been producing these aromatic whites for over 150 years, and while there are plenty of choices to fill your glass as well as your plate, the region has much more to offer.

Enjoy a walk or bike ride along the Riesling Trail, wander around many of the historic towns to discover its heritage architecture or pick a secluded viewpoint and enjoy the beauty of the valley.

FLINDERS RANGES

South Australia's outback at its finest

Discover some of the most stunning outback scenery the state has to offer, just a few hours from Adelaide. You'll find dusty outback roads backed by towering ancient cliffs or deep craters and stunning vistas with kangaroos and emus grazing on the dry grass.

The heart of the Flinders Ranges is Wilpena Pound - a natural amphitheatre which offers incredible views, Indigenous culture and frequent wildlife encounters. Take a challenging hike to the top of St Mary Peak for sunrise or a relaxed riverside walk to spot kangaroos and echidnas, perhaps a 'flight-seeing' trip to see the region from above or join a walking tour to discover more about the region's wildlife, geology and culture.

With everything from luxury retreats to outback camping, you can experience the region however you choose.

OUR TOP TIPS

Don't miss the outback sunset (or sunrise)
Appreciate the scale of the outback with a 'flight-seeing' trip over Wilpena Pound
Delve deeper into Indigenous culture on a guided walk

KANGAROO ISLAND

Incomparable natural beauty & wildlife

A sanctuary for wildlife and rugged beauty - nothing can compare to this unique island. The distinctive formations of the Remarkable Rocks and Admiral's Arch - both with the stunning back drop of the crashing ocean - are worth the trip alone. But, while the island is relatively small, you'll find yourself wanting more time - no matter how long you stay.

A day trip is a great way to see the highlights, like Seal Bay, which has around 1,000 residents, but it's worth spending several nights, not only to make the most of the abundant kangaroos, koalas and other wildlife, but to take in the ocean views and stunning vistas that are found throughout the island.

While the wildlife is definitely the reason to come, make sure you don't miss out on the boutique wineries and local produce which the island is famous for.

OUR TOP TIPS

Unplug, relax and get away from the crowds at a remote lodging
Enjoy the view to yourself and discover many of the remote look outs
Indulge yourself in one of the country's top luxury resorts – Great Southern Lodge
Don't miss out on the region's great food and wine

Australia holds a place as one of the world's best destinations to visit, stunning beaches and coastline, remarkable geology and landscapes, world class cities and vibrant country towns, the seemingly endless outback and its unique wildlife. The list goes on!

Surely one of the best countries for a road trip - you could drive north from cosmopolitan Perth to discover the World Heritage Coastline, from Adelaide to Darwin, taking in the iconic Uluru, or a more relaxing drive along the unforgettable Great Ocean Road.

There are plenty of options for short breaks, either in one of the vibrant cities - where you can indulge in fine food and wine and luxury accommodation, or one of the many smaller towns to delve deeper into regional Australia: its fine local produce and unique character while enjoying everything from fine dining and boutique hotels to bush tucker and sleeping under the stars.

As fascinating at it is diverse, the possibilities are endless.

NORTHERN TERRITORY

It's about time you did the NT

Indigenous art and culture, breathtaking geological features, some of the world's best wetlands, endless horizons and beautiful swimming holes are just a few of the reasons to visit the Northern Territory. With fishing charters, camel rides, sunset cruises added spectacular outback experiences, you're in for a trip of a lifetime.

While Darwin and Alice Springs are often used as just a base for exploring the wider region, they have their own charms and attractions. But it's once you head outside of civilisation that you begin to discover what the Territory is all about. Kakadu National Park, with its vast wetlands, birdlife and extensive rock art can't be missed if you're in the Top End, and while Uluru is on almost every travellers list to the Red Centre, don't forget the smaller, but none the less stunning sights, like Litchfield – with beautiful swimming holes and waterfalls, Katherine and the incredible Nitmiluk Gorge, Kata Tjuta - for mind blowing geology, or Kings Canyon, for its stunning vistas.

OUR TOP TIPS

Check out the beautiful Tiwi Islands, known for their Indigenous art
Get up close to the world's biggest reptile at Crocosaurus Cove
Enjoy sunset on a harbour that's five times bigger than Sydney's
Marvel at the stunning night sky in the remote outback
